Don't Look Now But—

1. Who is the cute Senior boy who has been going around with all these little Freshmen? Could it be our own Billy DeLoache?
2. What cute miss is casting longing eyes at Robert Jackson?
3. What glamorous Senior girl's heart beat a trifle faster when she read where Bill Lane had made all state college basketball team? Hello, Bill!
4. What Senior boy basketball star seems to be high scorer as far as Sylvia Johnson is concerned?
5. "Bootsie" Mountcastle is casting "goo goo" eyes at certain Freshmen girls. What do you mean by this, Bootsie?
6. Dot Dunn is wearing some Junior boy's ring. Whose ring is it, Dot?
7. Who is this Senior who is seen every day after school taking Thelma Wilhite home? It couldn't be our own Heyward McElveen or could it? We'll let you guess.
8. What Senior girl keeps in touch with a sergeant in Washington by the name of "Johnny"?
9. What flirting Senior girl has been seen very often with "cookie pushers"?
10. Some Senior girl has been heart broken ever since a certain Senior boy left school. Is it Susie?
11. What Senior boy is making a certain Science teacher wish she had never heard of Chemistry?
12. Who is the boy with his head buried in his book?
13. What Senior boy is said to be that way about a girl named "Mimi"?
14. What makes a certain boy, namely, Wade Foster so sad these days. Could it be love?
15. What Senior girl really has Mrs. Moxie on a hook?
16. What high official of the Cradock Student Body has a certain Freshman on the string?
17. What beauty contestant is so proud of her eyes that she wears red rimmed glasses to show them off?
18. What Senior girl almost burned the school down in chemistry class by setting a desk on fire? Could it be Clara "Firebug" Heybach?
19. What Senior girl was so proud of her boy friend that she brought a picture of him to school? It couldn't be Marie Hamilton, or could it?
20. What handsome Senior boy just won't give the girls a chance? Could it be Bob Kane?
21. What Senior boy is very good at his experiments in Chemistry, so good in fact that he's to be sent to Williamsburg to take an exam? Come, come, Rip!
22. What certain Senior girl is that way about Harold "glamour-pants" Schultze? Oh, Dottie.
23. What Senior twosome just can't stay apart even when changing classes? Could it be "Daisy Mae" Ward and "Lil Abner" Wilstrup?
24. A certain Senior girl has forsaken all the boys for a fellow by the name of E. W.
25. What Senior girl just hates to be called "Red", maybe she wants to have black hair, who knows?

CLASS HISTORY

OW we are Seniors and our school days are over; those happy days and years we spent together have now come to an end. But before we pass along let's look back a few chapters in our lives to the time when—

It was a sunny autumn day in September of 1938, and everything was just dandy to us, Freshmen. We had just come into high school and thought we owned the whole place; but then came Supreme Court and we were put in our proper places. Well, finally after settling down we chose Miss Phyllis Ferguson for our sponsor, and for our class officers Wilma Clapper as President; Shirley Lewis as Vice-President, and Ruth Shafer as our Secretary. Our first year of high school passed and June was there before we knew it.

Then came our Sophomore year and we again selected Miss Phyllis Ferguson for our sponsor. We then elected Donald Bolding, President; Clarence Taylor, Vice-President; and Cornelia Gregory, Secretary. With these officers and sponsor we completed our second year of high school and were now half way through with our trip.

Chapter III. By now we thought we were getting somewhere. It was the third leg of our journey and so to begin with we selected Miss Dorothy Pettus for our Junior Sponsor and for our class officers we chose for President, Buddy Dunn; for Vice-President, Smokey Broughton; for Secretary, James Martin, and for Treasurer, Cornelia Gregory. The big event of the year came on April 25 when we honored the Senior Class of '41 with the annual Junior-Senior Dance. During this year many new pupils came into our class and school but as in the year before we went "Onward ever; backward never!", this being our motto for the last two years. Came June, much, much too quickly and we realized that three of the short years of high school were now behind us. Thus ended Chapter III.

Chapter IV. The greatest one of all; the one that passed all too quickly. We got down to business right away and chose Miss Evelyn Byrd for our sponsor and Jack Wilstrup for President; James Martin for Vice-President; Julia Albert for Secretary and Cornelia Gregory for Treasurer. Red and white were chosen official Senior colors along with our motto, "Don't wait for your ship to come in; swim out to meet it!" The "fresh" Freshmen were put in their rightful places by our Supreme Court on October 28. After much discussion we selected our rings, invitations and finally our caps and gowns.

With the mid-term exams safely in the background we started practice for the third in our series of "Odds and Ends" minstrel under the direction of Miss Ruth Haverty. It was given February 26 and 27 at school and March 14 at the USO Club. The annual was planned to be bigger and better than ever this year so the staff was chosen November 28, and work was begun on the usual picture-taking and the job of getting enough ads. By now the time for the Senior Play had arrived and we picked out "The Merry Hares" and the usual task of selecting a cast and practice was started. It was greeted by a full house in May and was pronounced a great success.

All formalities were dispensed with on April 1, our annual "baby day," when we all became babies once more. In May we were the honored guests at the annual Junior-Senior Dance. These were the days when "jitter-bugging" was in full swing and all the "bugs" had a chance to show their ability.

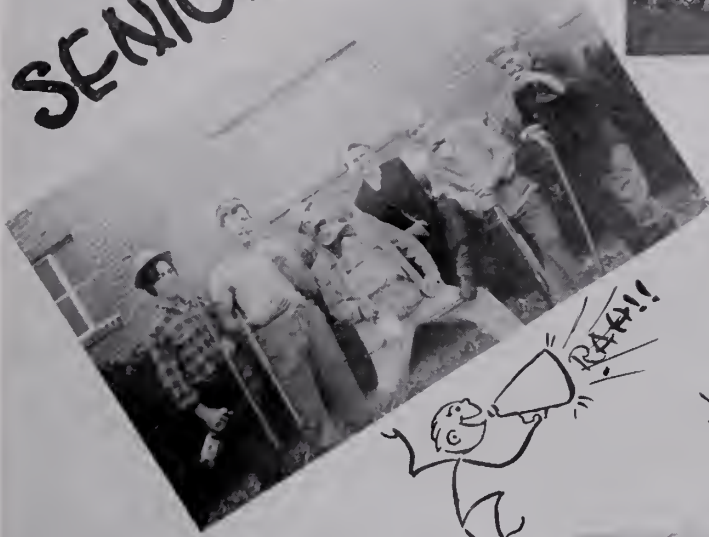

At the Senior Burial all of our grievances were buried with much ado and with this our year was just about ended. With the Senior Banquet, the Baccalaureate Sermon, Class Night and Commencement we wrote the "finis" to Chapter IV.

Thus we end the last chapter in our school life, those happy days we spent at Cradock High are now just a memory.

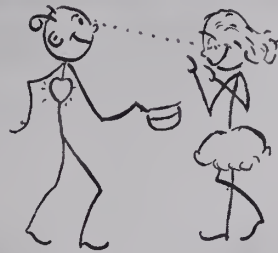

Here we bid our Alma Mater adieu with the sincere hope that she will continue to serve the youth of our community as she served us.

CLASS PROPHECY

March, 1952.

Dearest:

Honestly, the people one doesn't see nowadays! Why last nite at the theatre who should walk in on the arm of Walter Powell, the world's best and handsomest photographer, but that glamorous artist, Jeanette Lewis! You should have seen the gown she had on. None other than a Story creation; it was superb! All tulle and just dripping with sequins and jewels in the Story manner. I can remember when Carolyn Story was just starting out on Sixth Avenue, and now she's on Fifth Avenue rivaling Saks.

Also in the audience were the Gardner twins, Margie and Margaret, practicing their famous magical act that stunned and still continues to stun the world; wrapping their husbands around their little fingers. They really attracted attention, too. Almost stole the show from Frances Knox. This is without a doubt Frances' best play to date. You simply must see it when you come home. It is a satire on "The Little Foxes," and Frances has done a wonderful writing job.

Hollywood was well represented. Elizabeth Shaw, that singing, slinky siren of Colossal Films, was escorted by that dancing sheik, Heyward McEKeen. I wonder where Dorothy Wright, his dancing partner was? Probably out with Tom Case, that sports writer who has made such a name for himself.

Tommy Luke, the convertible auto magnet, sauntered in at 100 miles an hour with Ora Wheatley, recently voted first among America's ten best dressed women. She had on a green and purple affair that was so intricately made that I just can't begin to describe it.

Sorry I don't write newsier letters, but nothing ever seems to happen.

Lovingly,
INA MAE.

March, 1952.

Dearest:

Had lunch at the Colony Club today with Nancy Crane and Ruth Barrow, editor-in-chief and dietician respectively of Vogue. Which reminds me, I saw the most adorable evening gown in Vogue's current issue. Just oozing with oomph, and just within our budget limit. I can't remember whether it was $400 or $500. Anyhow you'll get the bill the first of the month. It won't be an April Fool.

To get back to the luncheon. I saw Vincent Cherry, the mathematician, and the scientist, Jean Everton. They were reported to be engaged by Clara Heybach, the gossip columnist. That's one time Clara slipped up. She's hardly ever wrong. She dropped in the other night to get some extra tips on the play, and her hat was the cutest thing I've seen in a decade. All metal.

Harold Schulmeyer, the dapper movie heartbreaker, was lunching with his press agent and publicity manager, Tom Hathaway. The way those autograph hounds surround him is simply disgraceful. He was dressed in the latest of the latest. I think it's a shame the way he keeps Ruth Shafer so busy. She had to answer all that fan mail by herself, you know.

You really should have been home last week. I was very pleasantly surprised when two of the nicest young married couples from home dropped in to see me. Jack Wilstrup, who is now foreman of the sheet metal department in the Navy Yard, and Jerry Ward, his devoted wife, still make such a cute couple. They had just missed Wade Foster, who is now head supervisor for the Greyhound Lines in Virginia, and his wife, Ethel Hull. From the four of them I really learned a lot of gossip about so many of my former friends from home. To hear tell, Jack Bushnell has gone back to Florida and is now in the hotel business down there. I really do think we should stay there on our next Florida trip.

Cassie Dibble is now assistant principal at Cradock School. She seems to be doing a swell job and fills the place admirably.

Valentine Ripley and Bob Kane have taken over all the movie theatres in Portsmouth, and are thinking of buying the entire Wilder chain.

Aubrey Houghton, pardon me, Lieutenant Commander Aubrey Houghton, is now in full command of Pearl Harbor, and Major Billy De Loache is head master at Massanutten Military Academy.

Katherine Atkins is now happily married and is President of the Cradock Women's Club. Mary Reichle is also residing in Cradock and is enjoying a happy marriage, but sorry to say, Mary is only Vice-President of the Women's Club. Doris Byers is now in charge of Woolworth's, manager. I hope to see her on her forth coming trip to New York. The conversation was most interesting, and I was sorry to see them go.

Eva Martin had the world premiere of her new African film at the Radio City Music Hall. Clara Heybach and I went. The gossip that girl doesn't know. The picture was a huge success. You really must see it. We shared a box with Norma Smith, the National President of the American Red Cross. Clara tried to pump her the whole evening. She's even willing to risk friendships for her column.

Yesterday I saw Ellen Adams, head of City Hospital, on Fifth Avenue. That girl is working too hard, but she seems to thrive on it.

We received an invitation today to attend a party that James Martin, the country's current favorite novelist, and Dorothy Weaver, the Metropolitan's great dramatic soprano, are throwing jointly. Dot and Jimmy also called up to make sure we'd be there and were brokenhearted when I told them you were out of town.

Simply everyone is going to be at the party. I'll write you and tell all.
Life gets duller and duller.

Lovingly,
INA MAE.

March, 1952.

Dearest:

The party was a howling success! I never saw so many celebrities in my whole life. Mabel Morgan, that dare-devil newspaper woman, was telling me about her most hair raising exploits. She has really nerves of steel.

Robert Jackson, the head designer of planes and aerial radios at Lockheed, flew in from the coast just for the blowout. With him was Jule Albert, the current toast of New York. Jule still retains her title of Champion Woman Bowler of the Eastern Seaboard.

Carolyn Whyte was unusually quiet. She had just bought some Glenn Miller records that afternoon and insisted on playing them all evening. She carries those records everywhere she goes.

Hilda Perkins, the famous milliner, and "Skeets" Taylor, were hand holding. "Skeets" now owns Madison Square Garden and is a great sports promoter. Did you know that Hilda makes all of his hats?

As you probably know, Shirley Lewis, the champion woman wrestler, is defending her title at the Garden tomorrow night. Almost everyone is going to stay over to see the bout.

Rear Admiral Talmadge Mountcastle and Alta Koon, top make-up artist at Paramount Studios, dropped in at the apartment after breakfast had been served at the party. We had everything from soup to nuts for breakfast. It seems that conversation just flourishes early in the morning, and especially after a party. It was certainly true of ours. However, the main topic of conversation was about the forth coming cross country rocket ship race. Jean Pool, ace woman rocket ship pilot and test pilot, seems to be the country's favorite. My, but that girl has certainly chalked up a record! I've been planning on having her over for dinner, but she moves so fast I can't keep up with her.

My, but one just doesn't see one's friends anymore. Where is everybody these days?

Lovingly,

INA MAE.

April, 1952.

Dearest:

Well, another month is here. It certainly did come in with a bang! Too bad you missed the wonderful party I threw. I'm sending you the bill in this letter.

I neglected to tell you in my last letter that Billy Kincaid is now supervising the Norfolk Navy Yard in Portsmouth, and Dr. John Ewen is the Yard's doctor and is bandaging all casualties very well.

You should have been here for the opening of Phyllis Harrell's new musical. I think it's marvelous the way she has combined her dancing with her modelling for Powers. She really gets prettier every day. The show opened Monday at the Schubert Theatre. Marie Hamilton even gave her a good notice. I know the show will be a big success because praise from that critic really makes you. John Peterson directed the extravaganza and designed the sets. Ann Gettier designed the costumes. When I went backstage after the show, she told me of her new job. She was just commissioned to paint the murals for the new post office building.

After theatre we all went to the Swank Club, Donald Smith's new place. It is positively too lovely for words. Donald, himself, showed us to our table. I was just thrilled to tears.

Dorothy Dunn quit her job at the Stork Club just to get the chance to open with her orchestra at the Swank. She had on the most stunning gown you ever saw. Cornelia Gregory, the thrush, is getting star billing. She improves every time I hear her. Confidentially, she told me that she is planning a show on Broadway for next season.

I heard from Virginia Domme, that head librarian at the Library of Congress. "Pete" is having right much trouble now. She's having nightmares about books. I invited her up for a few days.

Shirley Casteen, the Star's society editor, also wrote me. It seems that on that South American cruise she took she ran into none other than that world famed meteorologist, Joe Taylor. Then guess whom they ran into on the boat? None other than Ernest Dent, that roving foreign correspondent for the Portsmouth Star. I just know owner Betty Crane misses him terribly. He's the Star's star reporter.

I feel so good now. Mary Ellen Letsinger's Morning Sunshine Program always cheers me up so much. Her guest star was none other than Elizabeth Coshatt, that expert writer and lecturer on Egyptology. She has done so much work with Catherine Miller, Dean of Women at the University of Virginia. You know, Catherine was so instrumental in getting the University to go co-educational.

I'm sending you a copy of Marilyn Ridgeway's newest book on art with pictures of her own work. The Metropolitan Museum of Art is having an exhibition of her most recent works this week. The book is published by Majorie Taylor's company. That girl really knows how to pick best sellers.

My new watch came from the jewelers today. It's a new Margaret Crist design and just about the prettiest watch you ever saw. Margaret is really designing some unusual pieces this year. I'm seriously thinking of letting her handle our new silver pattern. She has such unusual taste.

Angeline Matthews caused quite a sensation at the exhibition of her new model skyscraper. The plans are simply magnificent! It was so cleverly arranged. We were all dumbfounded!

Ivan, I really think we should let her design our new home. She'll be able to build a nice room for you to putter around in and build your bridges.

Don't work too hard in South America.

Lovingly,

INA MAE.

CLASS POEM

Although the time is drawing near
When we must part from friends so dear,
We look back on those golden days
And sometimes wonder in amaze.

At first a captain for our crew
And then to help him—just a few
Were chosen for their leadership,
Then set to guide our sturdy ship.

Sometimes the ship would toss and turn,
On that great sea of "Teach and Learn,"
But with the help of our good crew
That captain brave would steer us through.

And now that we have crossed the sea
Our flag cries out, "To Victory!"
Although that battle has been won,
A greater fight has just begun.

—CLARA ELIZABETH HEYBACH

CLASS SONG

TO DEAR OLD CRADOCK HIGH
(Navy, Blue and Gold)

Our school days to an end have come,
And parting time is near.
For many happy days we've had
And friendships we hold dear.
So tried and true we say to you
Our last and fond good-by.
We've given years of faithfulness
To dear old Cradock High.

We border on the future now,
And know not what's in store.
But what we've learned at Cradock High.
Will serve us evermore.
And as we journey on life's way,
Succeeding when we try;
It makes us proud as we look back
On days at Cradock High.

CLASS NOTES

JUNIOR CLASS

The two Junior home rooms are supervised by Miss Elizabeth Duke and Miss Doris Fivecoat. All Junior class meetings have been directed toward the completion of the plans for the Junior-Senior to be held May 1.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

There are three Sophomore home rooms. Miss Frances Wells, Mrs. Warene Wood, and Mr. Richard Daughtrey are the Sophomore home room teachers.

Early in the fall the Sophomores sponsored a dance, the proceeds of which were turned over to the fund for the installation of the electric scoreboard which was the gift of the Senior class of 1941.

FRESHMEN CLASS

The Freshmen Class is divided into three home rooms under the supervision of Miss Mary Hunter Rice, Miss Dorothy Dancey, and Miss Charlotte Beale.

Freshmen work is so planned that the home room teachers teach coordinated periods of English—History and Science—Math. An extended Freshmen program is provided for those who wish it in shop, home ec., art, and needlecraft.

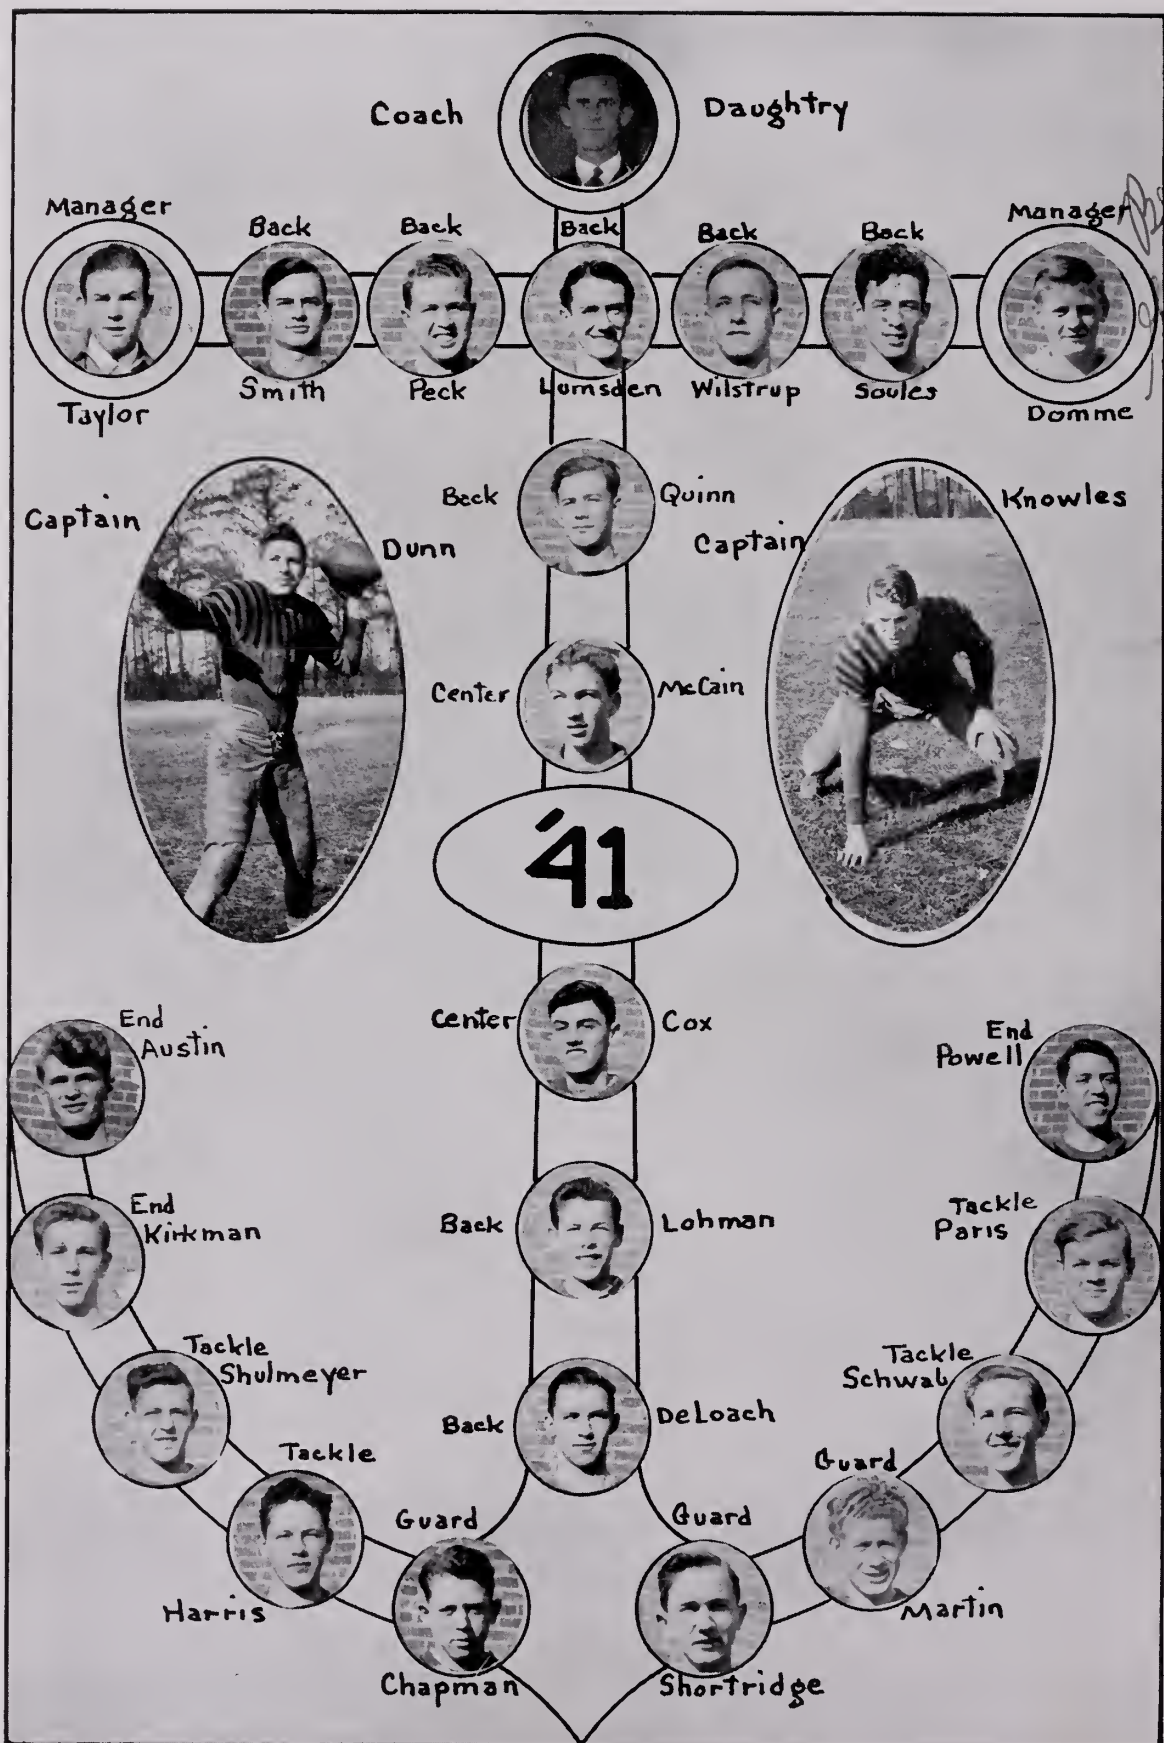

The Freshmen have been active in the dance club and on the newspaper staff.

Their picnic, scheduled on Easter Monday, at City Park, proved to be fun for all who attended.

ATHLETICS

The Football Team again opened the season against two Class A teams, Newport News and Hampton, being defeated by both. Due to the injuries of many of the players, the Admirals went through the most unsuccessful season in the past years. The record of this year stands, two (2) wins, one (1) tie, and seven (7) defeats.

The boys' Basketball Squad with five (5) lettermen and Coached by Dick Daughtrey, returned to school to win the Norfolk County Championship for the third straight year. The record for the season was ten (10) wins against ten (10) defeats.

With four (4) lettermen left from last year, the girl's sextette, under the excellent coaching of Miss Duke played brilliant basketball throughout the season, being set back by only one competitive team. Following previous years the team came through with another County Championship.

Although the girl's softball and boy's baseball teams are not in full swing there has been a very good showing and we wish the best of luck to them.

Cradock School Paper Named

Virginia Domme
Receives Honors for Naming Paper

To Virginia Domme, of the Senior Class, the honor of giving the newspaper its new name, "The Shipmate", was given by the faculty and the student body. Virginia is a member of the school and has recently moved to the office of the Annual staff. She is one of the three periods each year, a student library, and a student body well known. She was awarded a year's "The Shipmate".

During the week of December 3, the test was featured. The staff. Many members of the staff suggested and the student body. On the contest, the ballot was cast, and members of the ten names were the best. These names were: Miss Elizabeth Duke, Miss Evelyn Byrd, and Miss Janet Klerstead. Their decision gave us Miss Domme's suggestion, "The Shipmate".

Grades Present Annual Minstrel

The annual grammar school minstrel "The Dixie Blackbirds" was presented on December 12 in the school auditorium. The cast included the following leads: inter-locutor, John Ellis; end men, Dickie Blanks, Elbert Gibbs, Priscilla Powell, Henry Watson, Gene Mauck, and George Dunn. There were many specialties including a guitar solo by Forest Gowdy; a skit by Nancy Longstreet and Johnny Manser; a clarinet solo by Lois Hall; an old negro mammy's impression of good music, by Anne De Kalb; a quartet; and several dances.

The following teachers were co-directors; general chairman, Miss Catherine Harding; accompanist and director of solo and choruses, Jane Ha-thinks the campus of Cradock High School is very beautiful. Her first impression of Cradock was of the friendly people she met here. Her hair dress, with bangs, has caused a change in the hair-do of practically every girl in school.

She's cute—she's blonde—she teaches Sophomores and Seniors—she's Miss Doris Ross. Miss Ross calls East Orange, New Jersey her home and William and Mary and Beaver Colleges her Alma Maters. Her first impressions of Cradock High School were the nice teachers and the pretty girls; she did not notice the boys. Her hobby? She has a million, but her favorites are art and dramatics.

One of our newest and prettiest teachers is Miss Frances Wells. After graduating from Madison College, she taught five years at Harrisonburg High School. Although she has a Sophomore home room, she teaches Freshmen and Juniors. Miss Wells' home is in Suffolk, Virginia. Her hobbies are collecting old colored glass vases, and pitchers.

Miss Dorothy Anne Dancy is the blonde-haired, blue-eyed teacher in the English department. She graduated from the University of Virginia.

Dramatic Club Presents Play

The Dramatic Club sponsored a one act play under the direction of Miss Ross and Miss Dancy on the morning of December 3. This comedy entitled "The Right Answer" is a story of a girl shy boy

CLUB ACTIVITY

STUDENT COUNCIL

The work of the Student Council is to deal with the problems of student welfare and to improve the general appearance of the school. With these aims in view, the Council holds discussions with the faculty, students and among its own members.

The Spring Festival Dance is an annual affair given by the Council.

The meetings are held every Monday in the Home Ec. Cottage.

NEWSPAPER CLUB

Much credit is due the newly organized newspaper club. Its staff has worked hard and we are proud of it. An edition of the "Shipmate" comes out every other week. Included in the paper are the gossip column, the favorite of all the students, Dorothy Fix, editorials, and general happenings in and around school.

LIBRARY CLUB

Each member of the Library Club assists Miss Graves one hour each day repairing and shelving books and charging them in and out of the library. They also prepare new books for the shelves, type cards, and make posters. The club meets every other week, the meetings usually consisting of a program and discussions.

NEEDLECRAFT CLUB

The Needlecraft Club is composed of a group of Freshmen girls who meet daily to knit, embroider, crochet, and weave. They have accomplished a great deal, having finished many articles.

ORCHESTRA

The school orchestra has proved a success in the school programs in which it has been featured. Mr. Hardin's pupils furnish music for plays, meetings, and school programs.

DRAMATIC CLUB

On December 3, the Dramatic Club sponsored a one-act play entitled, "The Right Answer." The play was very successful. We wish them luck when they go to Charlottesville to compete against other schools in the state. They will again present a one-act play.

The club meets every second Tuesday in the month.

GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club meets every Wednesday and Thursday morning at 8:30.

The annual Odds and Ends minstrel was presented for the third time on February 26-27. This year the minstrel was divided into two acts, the first consisting of end men, jokes and songs. The second act was entitled "South American Way." It was again presented at the U. S. O. Club on March 14.

On December 19, the Glee Club sponsored a Cabaret Dance in the Cafeteria.

They competed in the Music Festival in Richmond on April 23-24.

PATROL CLUB

The Patrol Club supplies monitors for various occasions such as dances, plays, etc.

- June 9— Well, so long.

THROUGH

KEYHOLE

Once Upon A Time—

1. Girls wore their sweaters like dresses, almost down to their knees.
2. Each and every student had to have a note to go from one room to the other.
3. Miss Byrd filled every board with History IV notes.
4. Heyward McElveen and Nick Cutchins competed very heatedly in jitter-bugging.
5. We all rushed to get up in the line in the cafeteria.
6. Walter Powell was called "Von DuPowell" because of his picture taking ability.
7. Harold Schulmeyer wrecked his motorcycle trying to ride with one foot.
8. Jack Wilstrup and Billy Kincaid were getting rich at the Navy Yard while going to school.
9. Everyone had a phonograph, whether electric or muscle powered.
10. The last three days of the six weeks everyone rushed to the typing room to get his typing done in the last few minutes.
11. Kids used the ice cream parlor for a "jive joint."
12. Johnny Peterson got his nickel's worth out of the typing room.
13. Where you saw Mrs. Moxie you saw Ann Gettier.
14. Only a few of the students were allowed to stay in the library because of talking or otherwise.
15. Jimmy Martin was one of the biggest flirts, but he had a fellow running him a close second by the name of Tom Case.
16. Thelma Wilhite was the perfect girl in all the boys eyes.
17. Jimmy Rose was sought by some mighty cute girls.
18. It was the fad for the girls of Cradock High to wear boys' shirts.
19. Both boys and girls went around with dirty saddle shoes and sloppy sweaters.
20. Sue Strasser jumped up and got married and she was only a Junior.
21. Our school had a swell paper, THE SHIPMATE.
22. Miss Duke stood in the middle of the hall and directed traffic to the cafeteria.
23. Everyone was fussing about the short lunch period.
24. Center Hall was a regular lover's lane.
25. Skipping school was an everyday affair for some people.

OTHERS

SEE US

Can You Imagine —

1. Ina Mae Goldberg driving a Model "T" Ford?
2. Ernest Dent without his bow tie?
3. Carolyn Story not flirting?
4. Billy Kincaid and Ruth Shafer on time?
5. Miss Byrd conserving chalk?
6. John Lumsden with his History IV notebook?
7. Norma Smith not knowing her English?
8. Tom Hathaway agreeing with someone?
9. Thelma Wilhite talking "Yankee" dialect?
10. Mary Virginia Dover without short skirts?
11. Heyward McElveen without his "loud" clothes?
12. Marilyn Ridgeway yelling out in class?
13. "Nick" Cutchins slowly waltzing at a dance?
14. Phyllis Harrell frowning and mad with everyone?
15. Coach Daughtrey, a mellow tenor?
16. Jule Albert not worrying?
17. Gloria Olson without a boy or so?
18. Miss McClenny without bangs?
19. Charlie Knowles driving around a curve 10 miles an hour?
20. Dot Wright and Cornelia Gregory unable to even waltz?
21. George Quinn being quiet one whole period?
22. Barbara Anne Rock without a "cookie pusher"?
23. Mr. Haga slowly ambling down the hall?
24. Walter Powell and Donald Smith not studying French?
25. Clara Heybach not gossiping?
26. Robert Jackson not mentioning boats for a whole day?
27. Joe Taylor not busy?
28. James Martin with straight, dark hair?
29. The Japs beating MacArthur?
30. Virginians not teasing North Carolinians?
